FROM OUR MINISTER

Dear Friends,

I trust you had a blessed Easter with Family, relatives and friends.

We give thanks and praise to God Almighty that things were different, this year and we were able to celebrate Easter face to face in our church buildings.

The Government restrictions to stop the spread of the Pandemic COVID-19 had being lifted. All our churches on the Eastern End of the Circuit, Southville, Ashford Common and Woodthorpe Methodist Churches are meeting face to face on Sunday for morning worship. Things seem to be coming back to normal and most people seem confident and comfortable to attend services and some of the activities that routinely take place.

The last two months for some of us have been a difficult time and also a busy time. I tested positive Covid and experienced the symptoms of this terrible virus. The virus takes over your whole life, you lose control and become dysfunctional. I suffered headaches, chest pains, sweating, I felt like I am being drowned in water. I could only imagine that if I did received the necessary vaccines, the virus would have swept overcome my immunity system. Those symptoms I suffered were diminishing and debilitating. I thank God for the Scientists and the discovery of vaccines. Hopefully the vaccine will be available to all people and all nations.

Apart from the usual church work, we had lent courses running until up to Easter. I found myself much like the hard-working Martha of Bethany. So much to do, where to start! I needed to hear from the Lord, but I was struggling with headaches and covid ears. Refreshment came on Good Friday watching the Passion Play at St Dustan- the one and half hour with the Lord was enough to still the mind and focus on what is really important. For me it was a Kairos moment. It is an experience I cannot elucidate. All I can say is, I was blessed. Unfortunately many did not attend only six people were present in the Sanctuary.

On Easter Sunday we celebrated the death and resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. What do we make of these events? The disciples saw the empty tomb. We cannot talk with the disciples who saw the Risen Lord. However, the church itself is the evidence of Christ's resurrection. So, in this season we celebrate the context in which the empty tomb and the Risen Christ speak of new beginnings of a fresh start beyond the grave. According to the New Testament it sets a whole new way of existing in the world. It destroys old systems, inclusion and exclusion, belonging and alienation, acceptable and unacceptable, life and death—many of these are obliterated or shaken up.

Easter leads us to Pentecost, the most celebrated date in the Christian Calendar. The Lord commanded his disciples, do not leave Jerusalem, but wait for the gift of the Holy Spirit promised by my Father. For John baptised with water, but in a few days, you will be baptised with the Holy Spirit (Acts 1: 4-5). The words of John were fulfilled at Pentecost. The disciples were equipped for mission with tongues of fire, and rushing wind, just as the physical coming of the Holy Spirit upon Lord Jesus in the form of a dove equipped him for his ministry.

As we start to reflect waiting for Pentecost Sunday, we need to ask ourselves, are we willing to allow ourselves to be overwhelmed by God's Spirit and live it out through acts of compassion, grace, welcome and service? Are we ready to have Christ's Law of Love written on our hearts, to have our way illuminated by the Spirit's fire and blown into unexpected relationships by the wind of the Spirit? If we can open our hearts even just a little the Pentecost experience will be real and come to us, and we will never be the same.

I wish you a good summer season full of joy and travels far and wide to visit family, relatives and friends.

Blessings,

Juliet

From the Circuit Office – and Beyond

Dear Friends

I hope that you had a very happy Easter. The weather was truly wonderful and it was good that people were able to meet up without restriction following the relaxation of rules relating to the Covid-19 restrictions. Some areas were even able to share in a Walk of Witness. Churches Together in Staines and Laleham were led by the Salvation Army Band and a gathering of over 150 people met at the Two Rivers Shopping Centre to mark the events of Good Friday. The hope is that this will once again become a regular feature of Church life in our communities.

In the most recent edition of Eastern End News I reported that there were three projects awaiting resolution. I am happy to report that this has now reduced to just one. Here then, is the latest updated as at 19th April 2022.

The purchase of the Manse at Feltham has now been completed and the Circuit now owns the whole property. Work is well under way to obtain tenders for the work that needs to be done in order to upgrade the premises. We intend to complete this in time for the arrival of Rev. Kofi Tekyi-Ansah later in the year.

The second piece of good news is that the sale of Wendover Road Methodist Church has completed and funds from the sale have been transferred to the Circuit. Some money has been drawn down to replenish our reserves and to support a number of projects that have been planned. As I have stated elsewhere, do please contact your local Stewards or the Circuit Stewards if you have plans for your premises that would benefit from additional funding. Although there is no guarantee that the money can be allocated, applications are welcomed.

I am also happy to report that consideration of the Sharing Agreement and the Mission Initiative Agreement for the Partnership at Christchurch, Feltham is awaiting final consideration by the Solicitors acting for the Anglican Church. It seems that the paperwork will be agreed and in light of this we have arranged for a Service to take place at Christchurch, Feltham on Sunday 3rd July 2022 at 10:30am to celebrate the formal start of the Partnership between us. I am pleased to let you know that we expect both the Rev. David Hinchliffe and the Bishop of Kensington, Bishop Graham to share in this occasion with us. Further details will be circulated nearer the time.

The Circuit Stewards and I are so grateful for your prayers over the past months and I hope that you will continue to support the Circuit in your prayers in the days that lie ahead.

I am grateful to the Stewards at our local Churches. I think that all of our churches have completed the process of appointing new Stewards for the next Connexional year and I acknowledge with thanks the part played by people who have stepped down from such roles. It is clear that our Church community relies very heavily on the voluntary support of so many people and I am pleased to record my thanks to them in this letter. I am starting to think about the content of the next letter and given that so many things have been completed, I what matters I will be able to bring to your attention.

God bless. Andrew

Revd. John Mackerness – Heathrow Airport Chaplain.

Back in January Jonathan asked me if I would write a piece for the local church magazines / newsletters about my work as an airport chaplain. Well here goes.

I ordained in 2000 as a non-stipendiary minister working with the churches in the Luton and Dunstable area. In 2001 I candidated for full time stipendiary ministry and took redundancy from my job at ABC (now OAG) Travel Guides. As I had a gap year before going to Westminster College in Cambridge I volunteered as a chaplain at the Luton and Dunstable Hospital which is a major trauma centre.

Having completed my additional years training at Westminster College I then moved up to West Yorkshire to work with three churches in a newly formed team ministry.

After six and a half years I was ready for a change, and I had always said that, were I to become a full-time minister, then I wanted to work with people in the workplace rather than having a pastorate-based ministry. My time at the hospital had confirmed that this was the type of ministry that I was ultimately being called to.

Chaplaincy posts in the United Reformed Church don't come up very often. Little did I know that the then Moderator of the Thames North Synod of the U.R.C. was working hard to create a full time Chaplaincy post at Heathrow.

In 2009 the post was finally approved and advertised. I expressed an interest, visited the airport where I met Paul Murphy who was then a lay chaplain at the airport, had an interview, and, 20 minutes later I was offered the post and in January 2010 my wife and I moved to Egham, and I joined the chaplaincy team. Twelve years later I'm still there.

The Heathrow Multi-Faith Chaplaincy team is a multi-denominational, multi faith one. We currently have thirteen Christian chaplains of which two of us are nominally full time paid for by our denominations. We also have five chaplains from other faith communities.

Within the Christian team eight chaplains are ordained and the rest are volunteers. The non-Christian team are all volunteers. We currently serve a community that consists of nearly 20 million passengers a year or about 55000 passengers a day which is only about 25% of where we were pre-pandemic. Heathrow has about 3000 staff directly employed by the airport and some 70000 other staff from the airlines etc.

So, what do we do?

Well, our mission statement says that The Heathrow Airport Multi-Faith Chaplaincy aims to steady the soul / spirit of passengers, staff, and visitors of all faiths and none in order to contribute to the safe, secure, smooth, and profitable operation of the airport and thus improve the passenger experience. That happens in a variety of different ways. We are a visible presence around the airport so I can walk over 10000 steps a day just around terminal 5 where I am normally based talking to people. Most of our encounters only last about five minutes but even in that short space of time you would be surprised at what people will tell us.

I could tell you lots of stories and mightily bored you would be to. So better to watch these two links on YouTube.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Bq2OfL5opDk> This looks at dealing with a sudden death which happens fairly regularly.

Workplace Chaplaincy at Heathrow Airport - YouTube This talks about Chaplaincy more generally and was filmed as part of a series on Workplace Ministry for the Methodist Church.

Highlights – Aside from the look on the faces of the people that I have helped over the years highlights have got to be being pulled out of a crowd of spectators by our Chief Executive John Holland-Kaye and being introduced to Prince Charles when the prince visited terminal 5 to commemorate the opening of the terminal by the queen 25 years ago.

Another highlight was meeting Archbishop Desmond Tutu when a colleague and I help him and his daughter through the airport and we were invited to have dinner with them.

Low points – Being told not to come into the airport when the pandemic first broke out. We did what we could over zoom and by providing a telephone service, but nothing replaces the feeling that we should have been there in person with our people. Heathrow Airport Ltd also realised what an important part we play in contributing to the wellbeing of staff and passengers just by us being there so when the next lockdown came around, we were allowed to be at the airport and to carry on providing pastoral care.

Another low point was standing in terminal 3 arrivals and talking to a man who was waiting for a passenger to come through. He told me that he was waiting for his daughter's boyfriend who was arriving from Australia. He was going to have to tell this chap that his girlfriend had gone into labour early and given birth to a baby that sadly didn't survive. I used one of the prayer room offices to give them some privacy and I stayed with them until they felt ready to leave.

Oddest moments – The prize for the oddest moment of all was standing in Terminal 5 departures lounge with a gang of lads going out on a stag do and being asked to bless the groom. You never know whether this is a wind up or not, but it seemed important to them, so the groom was duly blessed, and they also got a very short homily reminding them of their duty of care to the groom to make sure that he got back in one piece.

Most common questions? Where are the toilets, where do I go to claim my VAT back (Usually from parties of Chinese or Japanese passengers), where can I smoke, and last but by no means least where is my flight going from. And yes, sometimes we even get asked about faith.

And what about worship? We have 10 multi-faith prayer rooms around the airport and most of them are now open. We also have the Chapel of St. George which is located behind the central bus station. The chapel is currently closed. The chapel also has a garden of remembrance which is open and where plaques can be placed in memory of staff who have died.

The two main worshipping communities on the airport are the Muslims and the Roman Catholics and they have been the hardest hit by the closure of the chapel and the prayer rooms as a result of the pandemic. They are the only ones who try and hold regular acts of devotion. We have tried to have others, but people just aren't interested.

I am also very lucky because part of my role is to preach at least once a month in a U.R.C. church and that takes me anywhere from Beacon Hill in Hampshire to Slough and Chesham and right over to Upminster in Essex.

I thank God that I was called to a ministry of chaplaincy which, far from being seen as the dumping ground for ministers that couldn't hack pastorate ministry, is now seen as being at the cutting edge of ministry meeting and working with people where they are.

Every day can be different and, when you leave the office, you have no idea what you might be faced with. So, you learn very quickly to put your trust in God's Spirit to guide you to where you need to go and what to say or do in any given situation.

Paul in Romans 15: 15 – 16 gives some good advice for Chaplains or indeed anyone engaged in pastoral work. ¹⁵ Be happy with those who are happy, and weep with those who weep. ¹⁶ Live in harmony with each other. Don't be too proud to enjoy the company of ordinary people. And don't think you know it all!

That, for me, seems to sum up chaplaincy at the airport.

If you are interested in learning more about chaplaincy or, indeed, in joining the team at Heathrow then speak to your minister and they can put you in touch with me.

We send Birthday greetings to friends who are celebrating over the next two months. In May this includes Justin Camis, Nicola Jeffrey & Tony McKenner and during June, June Hughes, June Mumford, Carol McKenner, Olive Chambers and Chris Morton.

Services during the last couple of months have been somewhat disrupted, mainly as a result of preachers testing positive for Covid before they are due to attend. We are very grateful to everyone who has stepped in and taken services often at very short notice.

For our Mother's Day Family and Parade it was the third reserves who led the Service. Rev Juliet was planned but was able to give good notice that she would not be able to join us, Kait Sanger graciously agreed to take the Service. Kait's planning was thorough and meticulous, which was very helpful as she tested positive on the morning of the Service, this left a double act of our organist and BB Captain delivering Kait's material.

Flowers for mothers were distributed during the service.

Looking forward into the Plan, Sunday 15 May is to be a Family and Parade Service to be led by Rev Andrew Reed – for a number of years, this has been the service which we follow with a BBQ lunch in the Church garden. The entire congregation is invited to this and we hope you'll be able to stay and join us.

The Boys' Brigade 7th North Surrey Company

Our weekly indoor programme has continued to offer a range of activities to our young people, including fairground games, Mother's Day craft, Easter baking and a treasure hunt to find QR codes linking to videos of the Easter story.

The last time we were able to offer a residential experience was August 2019 . . . during the Easter holiday we were able to take our members away again, a trip to Box Hill.

Nine young people were able to join us for the weekend with two coming along as day visitors. Events of the last couple of years have meant our campers were all rather inexperienced, but they showed amazing resilience, particularly as the weekend was quite cold, especially at night.

The programme made great use of the 56 acre wood and heath site that offered ample fuel for a camp fire, a walk off site gave the opportunity to enjoy the Surrey Hills and on Saturday afternoon climbing and abseiling was available for everyone to take part in.

The weekend concluded on Palm Sunday with the participants coming to Church, cold and tired for the morning service that was led by our Chaplin Carol McKenner.

When the Easter holiday ends, weekly meetings will return to the hall until the end of May, from the beginning of June, when we hope the weather will be kind, we'll take our meetings outside.

EASTER NEWS

Our Schools Work

We are delighted to report that we had two opportunities to share in the good news of Easter with local schools.

Firstly, we were invited into Cardinal Road School to share the Easter Story. Due to Covid restrictions within the school only one person was allowed in.

However, this did not stop Marilyn from presenting the story to 90 Year 1 pupils in an 'Open the Book' style with lots of participation from the children and teachers alike. I'm sure their take on the triumphant entry into Jerusalem could be heard throughout the entire school.

The children went back to class to complete the worksheets that we had provided for them. That evening Emma came home from work full of stories about conversations that had been taking place in class and pictures that the children had drawn.

The next week we were asked if Year 4 children from Southville Primary School could come to visit the Church to learn about what happens in Church at Lent and Eastertime.

Maggie and Marilyn and Jonathan greeted the 90 children into the Church and starting at Ash Wednesday and working our way through to Easter Sunday spent a very pleasant hour with the children. Palm leaves were waved as we all danced and sang to Hosanna on YouTube, the Lent Cross was decorated and finally the purple cloth, crown of thorns and nails were added to the cross when telling the story of Good Friday.

The session finished with a video of the Easter Poem.

Our time with the children ended with an opportunity for questions and answers.

The questions varied from:

"How did Jesus come back to life?" to

"why is there a balloon on the Church Ceiling."

Hopefully we were able to reply in a manner to satisfy their inquisitive minds.

As the children left they were each given a copy of the CPO activity magazine, What is Easter.

On the last day of term the RE Teacher hand delivered an array of thank you cards from the children.

I'd love to be able to share all the messages with you but here are just a few:

To Marilyn, Maggie and Computer Man, I liked how you guys put a purple robe on the cross. I really appreciated the hard work you guys put in for us.

Thank you Church, that was the best time ever and thank you for the bible book.

Dear Maggie and Marilyn, I am a Muslim but I still liked learning about Easter. I think RE (religious education) gives me a chance to learn about other religions. I hope we can come over again for Christmas.

To Marilyn, Maggie and Mr Computer, Thank you for teaching us about Easter and teaching us how Jesus rose from the cross.

Thank you sooo much Marilyn and Maggie for teaching us about how important Easter actually is! My favourite part was when we all stood up and we were singing Hosanna.

The school's response was:

Thank you to you and Maggie today. It was so engaging and well thought through and the children loved it. It was so nice for them to get out of school and have a different experience and you really made it special for them, they couldn't stop doing the booklets when we got back too.

The Head hopes that we will be able to restart Open the Book sessions in the autumn term.

We give thanks for the opportunities to work with the schools in our community and would encourage others to seek out ways of doing the same.

On the 1st April (the last day of term) 510 Hot Cross Buns were delivered to 11 of the Local Schools with an Easter Card thanking the staff for all their positive work with children in our community.

EASTER SUNDAY

On Easter Sunday afternoon, Woodthorpe Methodist held an Easter Egg hunt at the Clarendon Road site.

Chocolate eggs were hidden both in the church and in the garden, and all the children were given the same sized bag with a couple of little eggs to start with and some details about the church. On the count of three, they all dashed off together to search!

When everyone was sure there were no more eggs to be found, we had some refreshments, followed by a quieter time of colouring Easter pictures and solving Easter puzzles.

The children then choose their best picture and put it on the tree for judging.

About 10 families came with children aged 3 to 11, including members of Rainbows, Brownies and Guides and it was lovely to hear their excitement when searching and finding the eggs. It was also good to be able to meet with the parents and chat about the church.

The funeral of Mrs Pat Drinkwater took place as she wished on the 1st April 2022.

Although the building and the numbers of people that attend are smaller everything else is true of "her church".
